

Local Information for Maida Vale, W9

Our Maida Vale Apartments are located in the leafy inner city sanctuary of Maida Vale, with the famous Little Venice a 5 minute walk away and the quiet tranquillity of the canals, you would hardly believe that you are in centre of a one of the greatest cities in the world. You will also find the Lords Cricket Ground and Regents Park not too far away, making these apartments perfect for a relaxing urban break but still within a 5 minute Tube ride into town. These apartments come complete with everything you would expect at home, and with all linen provided and weekly servicing as standard, this is perfect for families or groups travelling together in style!

You are conveniently located within zone 1 of central London with your main high street being Edgware Road, where you will find most of your local shops and restaurants as well as banks, pubs, bus and underground stations.

We have listed below a little local knowledge of the area for your convenience and hope that it will help you get the most out of your time with us in London. They are a basic reference and do not fully reflect on what the area really has to offer. Enjoy!
